As 2021 comes to an end, The Roseburg food pantry would like to thank some of the many groups and agencies that helped us along the way:

- Feeding Umpqua (formally UCAN)
- Ford Family Foundation
- Mercy Foundation
- Sherms Thunderbird
- Grocery Outlet
- Costco
- Albertsons
- Cow Creek Band of Umpqua Tribe of Indians
- Carrot
- Home Depot
- Greater United Way
- Coastal
- C. Giles Hunt Charitable Trust
- Noble B. Goettel Charitable Trust

These are only a few of the many individuals, businesses and groups who donate their time or money. We appreciate all of you.

Thank you
Volunteers are the backbone of most food pantries. They give their time selflessly and expect zero in return. John and Linda Sloan are examples of such volunteers. John has been involved with the FISH food pantry since 2001 and was the FISH Board President for 14 years. Now that is dedication! Linda started volunteering for the food pantry in 2004. John and Linda have given so much of their own time to help the community. Linda is one of our intake volunteer’s. She is the first person clients see when they come to get a food box. And John is the go-to person if you have absolutely any question about the pantry. He is the one who has the most experience with all aspects of the pantry. Together John and Linda are a dynamic team and we are grateful to have them.

Volunteers don’t necessarily have the time they just have the heart...

Say Good Bye and Hello!!!

We are sad to see Cody Mulkey our warehouse worker leave, however we are excited for him to start a new opportunity. We are grateful to have someone just as wonderful take his place. A big welcome to Keith Chaffin.

PUMPKIN SQUARES
